On the successful completion of the placements, the Placement Chairperson, Prof. Abhishek Totawar said, "Despite the tough recruitment market this year and calamitous weather (in form of Vardah cyclone), we are happy to announce the successful completions of placements with increased numbers. We are extremely thankful to our recruiters who have shown trust in IIM Trichy".

The director of the institute, Dr. Prafulla Agnihotri said, "I am extremely happy to note the development of the institute over a period of last six years. Most of the leading companies in India have taken note of our progress and have started visiting campus for summer and final placements. I was especially thrilled to see the names of companies like Microsoft coming to IIM Trichy for summer placements and JP Morgan Chase, Shell and Publicis.Sapient coming to IIM Trichy for final placements, for the first time this year. I heartily congratulate the students of IIM Trichy who have worked hard and earned the recognition from all these prestigious companies in the world, my faculty colleagues for making the students work hard and giving them the right inputs, and the placement team and its dynamic leader, Prof. Abhishek Totawar, for facilitating the entire process. Lastly, I would only say that this is just the beginning."
